

Order to Whistle Will Hear.
 Coming to the House of John C. L. Hamilton, one of the few who are trying to break the will of the late Adelaide Hamilton, granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton, under the terms of which the bulk of her $100,000 estate is bequeathed to three sons and two daughters, surrogate Columbia today adjourned until next Monday morning in the contest. Hamilton was not named as a beneficiary. Henry C. Hamilton, attorney for J. C. L. Hamilton, stated that his client, who is eighty years old, would not be able to appear for at least a week.

HERO RISKS LIFE TWICE, BUT SAVES FIVE FROM FIRE

Policeman Hallis Dashes Into Blazing Apartment—Gets Out Bizer Family.

A family of four persons and a maid, penned in one end of their apartment on the top floor of No. 851 West One Hundred and Eighty-first Street at 4 o'clock this morning, were rescued by Policeman Hallis of the West One Hundred and Seventy-seventh Street Station. Hallis twice risked his life in making the rescue. The fire started in a closet opening into the dining room of Louis H. Bizer's eight room apartment. The Bizers, with their two small children and Julia Rothenberg, a maid, slept in the front of the apartment. In rear rooms slept Mrs. Rebecca Rothenberg, Mrs. Bizer's mother, and her two sons, Morris and Julius Rothenberg, both grown. From their rooms they had easy access to the hall of the building, but the dining room is between the rooms occupied by the Bizers and the hall. The five were thus cut off both from the stairway and fire-exit.

 Bizer struck his head out of a window and shouted for help. His cries were heard by Hallis, who rushed upstairs and broke into the apartment. In the glare Hallis could see the Bizers across the blazing dining room. He ran through the flames, wrapped his coat around one of the children, snatched the other in a blanket, told Mr. and Mrs. Bizer to wrap themselves in bedclothes, and then, with the children in his arms, led the dash back through the fire.

The family were taken down on the elevator. Sidney Crumley, the operator, remaining at his post and making trip after trip to carry out the excited tenants who poured, thinly clad, into the hall.
 On the way down Mrs. Bizer told the policeman of the maid still in the apartment. Julia, she said, was a very sound sleeper and she doubted if she had been awakened.
 Hallis went back and again made his way through the fire, wrapped the maid in bedclothes and carried her to safety.
 Bizer did not know that Hallis had returned for Miss Rothenberg and, having seen his wife and children taken in charge by neighbors, he ran upstairs again and into the apartment to get the girl.
 The blanket he had wrapped around himself caught fire and he cast it from him. Then his pajamas caught and he ran into the hall ablaze. Others beat out the flames in his clothing and a doctor was called from Washington Heights Hospital.

TOO LATE.

E. L. PRETORIUS, RICH PUBLISHER, SHOOTS HIMSELF

St. Louis Man Injured in Auto
 Crash Was Forced to Retire From Active Business.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—Edward L. Pretorius, publisher of the St. Louis Times, committed suicide early today. Mr. Pretorius, who was President of the German-American Press Association, which published both the Times and the Westliche Post, was found in the bath room of his home, where he had shot himself.

Mrs. Pretorius said her husband apparently had been in good spirits and that she could give no reason for his deed.
 He had been in poor health for eighteen months, his illness dating from an accident on Jan. 13, 1914, when an automobile in which he was riding was struck by a street car and a deep gash was cut in his face by broken glass. Soon after the accident he went to a sanitarium.
 Since that time he had been unable to attend to his newspaper work, and a few weeks ago when he began visiting his office a few hours daily, Edward L. Pretorius was the son of a St. Louis publisher, who had been in the city since the Civil War. From his father he inherited the Westliche Post. In 1907, in company with the late John Schriener, he founded the St. Louis Times, an afternoon paper published in English.

 Mr. Pretorius was an active clubman, having been a member of the St. Louis Racquet, Soccer and Country Club. He is survived by a widow and an infant daughter. He was forty-nine years old.

A FISHMAN'S PERSUASION.
 From the Photo Times-Union.
 Here is one of the famous W. L. Lutz catches of the old colored fisherman.
 "A stranger stopped at a lake where an old darter was fishing, when this dialogue ensued:
 "Darter, what?
 "Darter, what?
 "Have around here?
 "Yes, sir; in the house you top de bill!
 "Caught anything?
 "No, sir!
 "Ain't there any fish in that lake?
 "Sure, sir, but!
 "Then, why are you fishing in it?
 "Bare it's close!"

WARNING!

William T. Hickey, for eight years Secretary-Treasurer of the Colorado State Federation of Labor, a fellow-worker with John Lawson, sends A Warning Message To New York's Telling Thousands.

Denver, Colorado, Oct. 15th, 1915

Speaking from a Labor standpoint, Suffrage has been a failure in Colorado. There has never been a measure enacted into law for the protection of women and children of this State that was not initiated, campaigned and paid for by organized labor.

The Women's Eight Hour Law was defeated at two sessions of the legislature through factional fights among the women representatives; the Child Labor Laws and the Woman's Minimum Wage Law would never have been enacted if left to the women to champion.

There are many reasons why suffrage has been a failure here and I fail to see one set on the part of the women that has been to their benefit during the 20 years of suffrage in Colorado.

I do not want my meaning in this to be misconstrued, as we have some of the finest women in the world in Colorado, many of whom have tried to bring about better conditions, but their efforts have been a failure.

It is with these losses constantly in view that I SAY SUFFRAGE HAS BEEN A FAILURE IN COLORADO.

My advice to the Laboring People is: Consider this question thoroughly before you lend your support to a measure that you may in after years have reasons to regret.

Assuming you of my assistance at any time, I beg to remain,
 Very truly yours,
 W. T. Hickey

You do not vote on woman suffrage when you vote on the Constitution. The woman suffrage amendment is on the "Questions Submitted Ballot."
